

The New LTR Visa

Flexibility and Inclusivity for Global Talent

No Work Experience Requirement for Specialists

1

Offers opportunities to a wider range of talent to work in Thailand

- Applies to
- Highly Skilled Professionals
  - Work-from-Thailand Professionals

Expanding Eligibility to Educators

2

Now includes university professors and vocational educators to enhance knowledge transfer and workforce skills in Thailand

- Applies to
- Highly Skilled Professionals, including university professors, researchers, and educators in vocational sectors

Lowering Employer Revenue Thresholds

3

Reduces the revenue requirement for employers of Work-from-Thailand Professionals from USD 150 million to USD 50 million over three years

No Minimum Income Requirement for Wealthy Global Citizens

4

Removes the USD 80,000 annual income requirement, and focuses on stable assets and long-term investments of at least USD 500,000

Expanding Family Benefits

5

Now includes parents and other family members to ensure a smooth relocation experience for families

Exclusive Benefits of the LTR Visa

- ✓ A 10-years visa with unlimited re-entry
- ✓ Personal Income Tax rate capped at 17% for Highly Skilled Professionals
- ✓ Immigration reporting reduced to once a year
- ✓ Simplified work and residency permit processes

LTR Visa: A Gateway for Global Talent

managed by the Thailand Board of Investment (BOI)

The LTR Visa targets 4 key groups:

- 1 Highly Skilled Professionals
- 2 Work-from-Thailand Professionals
employed by foreign companies
- 3 Wealthy Global Citizens
- 4 Wealthy Pensioners

Thailand's LTR Visa is paving the way to becoming a global hub of talent and innovation.

For more information

